Our Church

THIS IS MY CHURCH.

I love it,
I believe in it,
It is like home to me—
I want to serve it.
I want to be worthy of it.
It has a place for me,
It needs me—
It needs me—
I will not neglect it.
I believe in its teachings
That show me how to do God's work.
My Church is my friend.

THIS IS YOUR CHURCH.

I believe you love it
And will be true to it.
This makes us comrades
And companions.

THIS IS GOD'S CHURCH.

He hears the prayers we make;
He is with us when we sing,
And He sees the work we do.

THIS IS OUR CHURCH—

YOUR CHURCH,
MY CHURCH,
GOD'S CHURCH.

Here we may all work together
To help this world become a better place,
Let us be glad we may work together with God
Let us rejoice that we have our Church,
Where we seek to learn
The work and the ways of God.

—FRANCES M. MORTON

HYMN "God of Grace and God of Glory"

ANNIVERSARY SERVICES

1. God of grace and God of glory,
On Thy people pour Thy power;
Crown Thine ancient Church's story;
Bring her bud to glorious flower,
Grant us wisdom, Grant us courage,
For the facing of this hour;
For the facing of this hour.

2. Lo! The hosts of evil round us,
Scorn Thy Christ, assail his ways.
Fears and doubts too long have bound us,
Free our hearts to work and praise,
Grant us wisdom, Grant us courage,
For the living of these days,
For the living of these days.

3. Cure thy children's warring madness,
Bend our pride to thy control;
Shame our wanton, selfish gladness;
Rich in things and poor in soul.
Grant us wisdom, grant us courage,
Lest we miss Thy Kingdom's goal,
Lest we miss Thy Kingdom's goal.

4. Set our feet on lofty places;
Gird our lives that they may be
Armored with all Christ-like graces
In the fight to set men free.
Grant us wisdom, Grant us courage,
That we fail not man nor Thee,
That we fail not man nor Thee.

5. Save us from weak resignation
To the evils we deplore;
Let the search for Thy salvation,
Be our glory evermore.
Grant us wisdom, grant us courage
Serving Thee whom we adore,
Serving Thee whom we adore.

HISTORY OF THE FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH OF FRIEND, NEBRASKA

Early records of our church reveal a sincere desire on the part of Christian people of Friendville to get together for worship in the early 1870's. These records state that Christian people of this community were holding meetings in the school house with Rev. B. G. Page of Dorchester, as pastor for a time prior to the organization of the church.

On May 15, 1875, Mr. and Mrs. Anson Paine, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Harrison and Mr. and Mrs. Herman F. Moeller met in the school house at Friendville to consider the advisability of forming a church, as there was none in the community at that time. A committee was appointed to work with the pastor, Rev. B. G. Page, and to council with neighboring churches. On June 15, of the same year, the committee called a meeting at the Frantz Hall. By a unanimous vote it was declared expedient to organize a church and that it was to be a Congregational church with the following charter members: Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Harrison, of the Congregational Church at Exeter; Mr. and Mrs. Herman F. Moeller of the Congregational Church at Gape Grove, Illinois; Mr. and Mrs. Anson Paine of the Congregational Church of Dorchester, and Henry Harrison, on profession of faith in Christ.

In the afternoon the congregation met in the school house with the representatives of nine churches in council. The proceedings in regard to the formation of a Congregational Church, together with Creed, Covenant and Constitution were submitted to the Council, read and approved. A service of Recognition was arranged to take place immediately. Rev. Simon Barrows, of Osceola, who was present, was invited to preach the sermon; Rev. Gates to head the Covenant and prayer; Rev. Bates the Charge to the Church, and the right hand of fellowship to be extended by the Rev. Bross. The benediction was pronounced by Rev. Page whose labors in the organization of this church had been richly blessed.

This newly organized church continued to hold meetings in the school house until the Fall of 1877. Then in October, the building of the church was let by contract, the carpenter work with exception of window frames to be done for $295.00. During this winter the meetings were held in the Frantz and Brickley Hall. In the Spring the Church was plastered and painted. The seats for the church, which are now in the Sunday school room, were donated by a church in Missouri.

It might be interesting to note that when the location of the church was decided upon, there was much opposition, as most everyone was certain that the town would not grow beyond what is now known as Sucker Creek draw, but would grow to the north and west. But the Lord, knowing the future, guided the minds of those who made the final decision, as He has many times since in the history of the church, and through the years the location has proved to be an ideal one.

If one could picture the town as it was then, with only a few streets, a few scattered dwellings, most of which were north of where the church now stands, a large draw to the south and east of it, one could more fully realize the wisdom of depending on the Lord for guidance.

Rev. Page lived in a dugout home on the slope of ground where the Warren Memorial Hospital now stands. One night as he was walking to the E. Slagg store and the home of Mrs. E. J. Hurlburt to arrange for some church singing, he fell into an open cellar way. He was injured so seriously that he was an invalid until his death the following November. He was buried in the Whitcomb Cemetery in the north part of town. During his three years pastorate, the church membership increased from the seven charter members to twenty-nine. He is remembered as one of the beloved pastors and left in the hearts of those who knew him a benediction of kindness.

During the time of Rev. Page's illness, the church called Rev. Fred Alley of Wilber to be pastor for three months. He was present as Scribe at the organization of the church. In November 1877 Rev. B. J. Chase was called to preach until July 1879. During this time, with many prayers and much sacrifice, the little church was paid for. It was not a finished product, for not even the bell and tower were on it, but additions were made to it as the members felt able to make them.

Rev. Winslow came in October 1879. A new organ was bought in September of the year 1880 and a new stove in November. Arrangements were then made to dedicate the church in December. The Methodist friends closed their morning service and came to the dedicatory service in which their pastor assisted. In the Fall of 1881 a new bell was purchased and a tower built for it.

In April 1883 Rev. Winslow resigned and Rev. Orville Clark was called in July at an annual salary of $1,000.00. In August of the same year an addition was built to the church to be used for prayer room and pastor's study. We find the following in the church records regarding this addition: "Robert Sands Sr. and H. F. Moeller, trustees of the church, this day negotiated a loan with Mr. L. E. Southwick for $225.00 with 10% interest in advance for one year, giving their personal note for $250.00 to pay for the building attached to the church."

By this time the church membership had grown to fifty. In May 1885, Rev. Clark resigned because of ill health and Mr. Thome a student from Oberlin supplied the pulpit for two months. In August the church called Rev. Sydney Strong, who began his pastorate in September at a salary of $800.00. In the clerk's report for 1886, he said this was the most prosperous year in the history of the church. Thirty-seven new members were added and the church was enabled to assume self-support through the use of the envelope system.

In May of 1887, Rev. Strong resigned and Rev. W. E. Davidson of Central Park Chicago, began his pastorate in October of that year. During his pastorate he was ordained in the Congregational Church of Friend. Rev. Sharret from England was the next pastor, but he stayed only a few months. Rev. Dada came in July 1889 as pastor at a salary of $500.00 and parsonage. He was pastor for 5 years, the longest pastorate in the history of the church up to this time. In the last November of his pastorate, the Methodist and Baptist churches joined the Congregational church in revival meetings. Mr. Billings was the evangelist and Mr. Byers the singer. As a result of these meetings, this church received twenty-one new members.

At the annual meeting of 1891, the members were greatly surprised and pleased by the presentation of a beautiful silver communion set by Mr. H. K. Johnson. The pastor preached his farewell sermon in July, 1894, and the clerk, at the end of the year, said in his report that it had been a year of trials and discouragement. The church was without a pastor the last half of the year 1894 and the failure of crops crippled them financially, but thanks to the Ladies Home Circle, they were almost out of debt.

In February of 1895 the church had a pastor in view and asked aid of the Home Mission Society, but they were unable to help them. Notwithstanding the extreme liberality of the members and the people of the town, when compared to their incomes during the years 1894 and 1895, they were unable to employ a minister so Mr. H. F. Moeller, Mr. H. M. Smith and Dr. H. W. Hewitt took turns in conducting services and reading sermons thus holding the church together until a minister was available.

Finally, in September 1895, they called Rev. Amos Dean of Crete to preach every Sunday morning, with a salary of $250.00 a year. For a year and a half he served the church, still making his home at Crete although they had hoped he would move to Friend. Whenever he was unable to come, he would send President Perry of Doane College or some of the college students who were preparing for the ministry.

Rev. Frederick Leavitt, who served our church very efficiently as a supply minister from August to November 1896, was one of these college students who served our church in 1896. Deacon Moeller, living on the road from Crete to Friend, was generally the one to entertain these ministers since they usually came by horse and buggy. Rev. Dean served the church in this way until January 1, 1897.

For several months at the beginning of 1897, because of the serious financial depression preceded by drought and crop failures the staunch Christian laymen of the church conducted the services and kept the church alive. The faith and courage of those pioneer Christians has challenged us in times of stress to a larger and more consecrated Christian service.

In October of 1897 the church was happy to have Rev. W. B. Payne, with his able wife and three children, come to serve them. For three years he and his wife ministered very efficiently to a grateful people. Mrs. Payne was a wonderful worker among young people. It wasn't long until she had a large Sunday school class of young men and women. She also organized a Junior Christian Endeavor Society, which met every Saturday afternoon at the church, so that the children from the country might attend. While they were here a living room and bedroom were added to the parsonage and the church was repaired.

Rev. W. W. Hart came as pastor in October 1900 and soon after, they began to discuss plans for the building of a new church, since the old church needed so much repairing, and was inadequate for their needs. The country was becoming more prosperous by this time and the church took on new life. In August 1901 it was decided to build a new church and a building committee was appointed and given power to dispose of the old building or use it in whatever way they saw fit. Consequently, the first building was moved back and turned to face the North and this became what is now known as the chapel. The present sanctuary was then constructed, including a small basement with kitchen and dining room facilities. The primary department of the Sunday school and Junior church were to use the basement also.

As a result of great effort, the new church building was completed at a cost of about $7,000.00 and on Sunday, September 21, 1902, it was dedicated free of debt. Rev. Sydney Strong, a former pastor, preached the dedicatory sermon.

While the church was in progress of construction, the question of a larger bell was discussed. The old bell was sold to a party of Utica and the balance of about $300.00 yet needed was raised by subscription. The bell was purchased and placed in the belfry ready for use at the dedicatory services.

About the time that the new church building was being talked about, it was thought that it would be a fine thing if the church could own the entire half-block upon which the church and parsonage were located; so the B and M. Land Co. was consulted and they gladly gave the church the remaining two lots which they owned. The other lot to the west of the church belonged to Dr. F. C. Hinman, and he kindly consented to transfer it to the church, thus making the church the owner of the complete half block upon which the church and parsonage are now located. Dr. E. A. Watson conceived the idea of setting out trees and making it a park for all meetings of a moral character.

The splendid showing of material prosperity is but incidental to the real object of the church, which, as stated in the constitution, is to bring people to a saving knowledge of Jesus Christ and is founded upon the broad principle of loving the Lord with all your mind and heart, and loving your neighbor as yourself. That this our church, in its brave and worthy past, did not fail in this its greatest object, is attested by the fact that from 1875 to 1907 a total of 382 persons united with the church either by confession of faith or by letter of transfer.

In February, 1903, a Rev. Houser conducted evangelistic meetings in the new church together with the Baptist, Methodist and German Congregational churches. In March, 1903, it was voted to make an effort to unite the Baptist and Congregational churches into one body, but no agreement could be reached. In March Rev. Hart resigned and Rev. Perry A. Sharpe became our pastor the following June, faithfully serving the church for three years.

In 1905 Mr. W. O. Southwick, a staunch friend of the church for many years, conceived the idea that the church ought to have a pipe organ and by his very liberal contribution and effort the organ was purchased and installed. After dedicating the new church free from debt and with prosperity returning it was decided in 1906 that there should be more commodious quarters for the pastor, so the old parsonage was sold and the present structure built at an approximate cost of $3500.00 The new parsonage was ready for use when Rev. J. S. Hamilton came in October of 1906. Rev. Hamilton served the church for nearly four years but because of ill health thought it best to go to another field. Rev. Hamilton's ministry here was one of spiritual growth for the church was well filled at Sunday services and the prayer meetings were well attended. Mrs. Hamilton organized the Women's Missionary Society of which she was also president until they moved away.

Rev. Edwin Wright came on August 1, 1910, and served the church until June 1, 1914. He taught a teacher's training class and several completed the work and obtained teacher's certificates. Mrs. Wright organized the Junior Christian Endeavor, which had been discontinued for some time because of lack of leadership.

Dr. H. H. Price came as pastor in September, 1914, remaining here until December 1917, when he resigned to serve as a Chaplain in the army. On September 15, 1915, during his ministry, the church celebrated its Fortieth Anniversary with appropriate and inspiring services. In the Anniversary booklet, then published, there were listed the names of 174 persons as constituting the active membership of our church at that time.

Rev. Leon Moore served as pastor here from February, 1918, to April 1, 1920. After he left, Rev. G. R. McKeith served as pastor from May 1, 1920, to August 31, 1923. Rev. Ralph Pinkham was the next minister to serve the church. His ministry was from November, 1923, to July, 1928. He recognized the value of the young people in the church's organization. It was during his ministry on May 15 through May 17th, 1925, that this church and the Blue Valley Association of Congregational churches celebrated together in this church, their Fiftieth Anniversary. Rev. J. S. Hamilton a former pastor, was the speaker for the church on this occasion. Word was received by some of our members of Rev. Pinkham's death in January 1950.

Rev. Wm. Becker came to this church on November 1, 1928, and with Mrs. Becker and their fine family, served the church long and well. Rev. Becker's first pastorate here still holds the record for the longest pastorate in the history of the church. Two very successful evangelistic campaigns conducted by the Misses Stockton and Gould, were carried on which greatly revived the spiritual life of the people. During Rev. Becker's first ministry of 6 years and 7 months, there was a membership increase of 240 souls.

For some time nearly every department of the church had felt the need for more room. The basement was very inadequate. A larger kitchen was needed and more room to serve suppers and for the social life of the church. The Sunday school was especially handicapped because of so little room.

When the building committee started work it was planned only to install a new heating plant and fix over the furnace room with the necessary changes this would require. As work progressed, the necessity of a more extensive building program became evident, and the church board gave their consent and provided for the necessary committees, who faithfully carried out their duties. The basement was greatly enlarged and remodeled and the walls in the chapel and sanctuary were re-decorated with cellofex in addition to installing a new type of heating plant. At the completion of this extensive remodeling project, on Sunday, July 12, 1931, a rededication service was held.

Because of his intense interest in rescue mission work, Rev. Wm. Becker left Friend on June 1, 1935, to become superintendent of the People's City Mission in Lincoln. On June 16, 1935, Rev. Moore G. Bell, having been extended a call by this church, began his ministry here. This was his first charge upon graduating from the seminary. A few weeks after he started his ministry here, he married and brought his bride to our parsonage to establish their first home. Both Rev. and Mrs. Bell added much to the music of the church and worked tirelessly especially with the young people. Rev. Bell also organized the men's brotherhood. It was during this period that drouth and financial depression again made it extremely difficult to carry on, but with courageous leadership and consecrated effort on the part of all, we struggled through this period to another period of prosperity. Rev. Bell left us on December 8, 1940, to accept the call of the Presbyterian church in Schaller, Iowa. He had served our church for 5 years and 5 months, the second longest pastorate in the church's history thus far.

On March 23, 1941, Rev. Peter Friesen began his ministry at this church. Because of more prosperous times we were able during his ministry to burn the mortgage on the church leaving the property free of debt once more. Rev. Friesen left our church on December 28, 1944, and together with about 51 members from this church, established the Friend Bible Church in Friend. Our membership at the close of his ministry was 314.

Rev. Wm. Becker, who was serving the Congregational church at Ogallala, Nebr., accepted our call and came to serve our church and began his second ministry here on March 4, 1945. Rev. "Sandy" Fales, then of Grafton, Nebr., served our church very efficiently as interim pastor for the first two months of 1945 until Rev. Becker was able to come.

Since it was becoming increasingly difficult to obtain repairs for the old pipe organ, it was voted to remove the old organ and donate it to the Children's Home of Henderson, Nebr., where there were several people who understood the repairing of musical instruments and where many children could still enjoy the instrument. In its place here, a Hammond electric organ was purchased and installed. The space formerly occupied by the pipe organ was beautifully re-decorated and added to the choir loft.

Rev. John Alber, an architect and builder, designed and built the new pulpit furniture consisting of a communion table, pulpit, lectern, rostrum chairs and collection plates, all according to Scriptural symbolism. The floors were sanded and refinished throughout the entire church. The old brick sidewalks were removed and new cement ones constructed around the entire north and east sides of the church property.

Rev. Becker's health began to fail soon after he returned for his second pastorate, but in spite of great pain which he suffered, he still labored with every ounce of strength he possessed. This church's and particularly his Lord's business, was his chief concern. After many months of suffering, his kind and gracious Heavenly Father called him home on November 10, 1947. His funeral was held in this church and his burial was in Lincoln Memorial Park. It has been said of him that he was a tireless and devoted worker and that his pastores in Friend were of great benefit to his church and community in general.

During Rev. Becker's illness and after his death, Rev. H. W. Wagner, a retired Methodist minister and long time friend of the church, graciously filled our pulpit whenever he was called upon.

Dr. Edwin T. Settle, a professor from Doane College came as interim pastor from November, 1947, until the close of the College term in May 1948. Dr. Fred E. Stemme came June 1, 1948, as our pastor. During his pastorate a new gas heating system was installed in both the church and the parsonage. Mrs. Stemme worked enthusiastically with the Junior Pilgrim Fellowship group. On July 31, 1949, Dr. Stemme accepted the call of the Congregational church at Hayes Center, Nebr.

Rev. Roy Reynolds, of our congregation and community, Mr. Ernest Horner of the Methodist church, and Rev. Robert L. Embree, pastor of the local Methodist church, have been very helpful to our church whenever the need arose.

Rev. F. W. Leavitt, a retired Congregational minister residing at Crete, Nebr., supplied our pulpit as interim pastor from August through November, 1949. Though he first supplied the pulpit here 53 years ago as a student, his outlook on life still endears him to young and old alike. Since there had been no formal dedication service for the organ, chimes and chancel appointments, Rev. Leavitt set to work and arranged such a service. This was held on November 6, 1949, at which time the following memorials were dedicated:

The Deagan Chimes, Mrs. Nels Barney, for her husband and sons Louis and John.

The Choir Chairs, Irvin and Herbert Range, for their parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Range.

The Altar and Communion Table, Mrs. Hugh Stewart, for her husband.

The Pulpit, Lectern and Rostrum Chairs, Mrs. John Barney, for her husband and herself.

The Cross and Candlesticks, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Wakeman, for her mother, Mrs. Henry Klein.

The organ was purchased from a special organ fund to which nearly all members and some friends responded generously.

The collection plates were a gift from the Senior Pilgrim Fellowship.

Rev. Henry Demler came to us on December 1, 1949, as our pastor. Both Rev. and Mrs. Demler have taken a very active part in the choir and helped greatly in both the Junior and Senior Pilgrim Fellowship groups. A nursery has been maintained in the basement during church under the sponsorship of Mrs. H. R. Wood, to make church attendance for mothers with babies and small children more possible.

The church steps have been rebuilt and a lovely fireplace with seats about it built on the terrace below the church, from the bricks and cement blocks salvaged from the old steps. The Pilgrim Fellowship youth group sponsored this project.

The parsonage has been beautifully re-decorated and remodeled with the Demler's donating a very generous amount of improvements. The church basement, including kitchen and rest rooms have been beautifully redecorated. The Sunday school paid for the basement redecorating, the Dorcas for the kitchen and rest rooms. People of the church did all the work. As this goes to press, plans are under way to completely redecorate the church sanctuary, chapel and choir rooms thus fulfilling a desire and project which was begun by the Pilgrim Fellowship and in which they have generously helped and contributed funds which they earned.

Our church history would not be complete without mentioning a few significant facts. On our church membership rolls, we still have two of the children of two of the charter members, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Moeller. They are Mrs. Rose Farquharson and Mrs. Natalia Warner. Mrs. Farquharson has the distinction of being a member of this church for 65 years, which is the longest membership record of any living member. Mr. Moeller's faithfulness is proven by the fact that, though his home was three miles in the country, he was a regular attendant at the midweek prayer meeting and both the morning and evening services of the church, no matter how hard the labors of the day or how inclement the weather, in a day when all traveling had to be done with horses and buggy. Surely his faithfulness should inspire us to greater loyalty.

Another fact is that we have had five generations of one family in our church, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Pierce, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Spence, Mr. Clarence Spence, Mrs. George Kohout, and Kathleen and Linda Kohout. There are several four generation families.

We have had our deep sorrows and our times of great joy and are grateful to God for all the experiences we have shared together in this His and our Church. On this occasion of its 75th Anniversary, we feel that we stand at a high pinnacle of its experience. Its glorious and worthy past challenges us to move forward to greater consecration and endeavor in the future, build'g upon the Rock, Christ Jesus.

THE HISTORICAL COMMITTEE.

YOUTH, TODAY AND TOMORROW

BY VERN WORDEN

Youth, today and tomorrow,
Hath always the knowledge of Christ to borrow;
For in their Christ-like steps today
They lead the Christians in the way.

Youth grows old with the march of time,
Being their elders that made these last;
They accept the challenge that they see,
To keep the church firm and the nation free.

Youth grow old with the march of time,
But there are more youth close behind;
Who then must be taught to give their most
To serve the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Youths today, fill many of our church needs;
Youths tomorrow, will carry further their deed.
So look to the future you you'ful dreamers,
Christ will always be your souls redeemer.

O Church Of God!

IS THIS the time, O church of God, to sound
Retreat? To arm with weapons cheap and blunt
The men and women who have borne the brunt
Of truth's fierce strife and boldly held their ground?

Is this the time to halt when all around
Horizons lift, new destinies confront;
Stern duties wait our people, never wont
To play the laggard, when God's will was found

No, rather strengthen stakes, and lengthen cords.
Enlarge thy plans and gifts, O thou elect,
And to Thy Kingdom come for such a time.

The earth with all its fullness is the Lord's;
Great things attempt for Him, great things expect.
Whose love imperial is, whose power sublime.

—The Challenger.
